This is because that baby has no idea how to fall back asleep on her own. She needs Mommy or Daddy to do it for her. So whatever it takes, and however long it takes, do your baby a favor and put her down awake. 5. Wait before going in. If your baby wakes at night, wait a few minutes before going in.

Remember to place your baby to sleep on his or her back, and clear the crib or bassinet of blankets and other soft items. Give your baby time to settle down. Your baby might fuss or cry before finding a comfortable position and falling asleep. If the crying doesn't stop, check on your baby, offer comforting words and leave the room.
